

Cellarmix Range

- Manufactured in stainless steel this is the latest in the current design of panel and is designed specifically for use with CO₂ and N₂ in cylinder. This unit can be supplied for both soft drinks and beer dispense and is available with up to four outlets per panel. Pressure gauges, isolating valves, regulators and pressure relief valves are supplied as standard.

